FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 26, 1915

Give Thanks for Duty.

Thank God every morning when you get up that you have something to do that day which must be done whether you like it or not. Being forced to work and forced to do your best, will breed in you a hundred virtues which the idle never know.—Charles Kingsley

It is strongly hinted that if the constitutionality League insists upon submitting an amendment to the constitution next year Ohio will have another wet and dry fight.

Mayor Newton Baker of Cleveland is mentioned as a likely candidate for the democratic nomination for vice president in the event Vice President Marshall decides not to run again.

Geo. C. Braden, ex-recorder of Trumbull county and ex-postmaster of Warren, is announced as a candidate for the republican nomination for auditor of state at the primaries next year. He is worthy and well qualified.

Former President Taft has made it plain that he will not be a candidate for the republican nomination for president next year, but one has heard former President Roosevelt even hint that he will not be in the running.

When the democratic national committee meets Dec. 7 it will have offers of $100,000 from Dallas, St. Louis and Chicago and $200,000 from San Francisco for next year's democratic national convention. The Pacific coast city bid is high but it will hardly win, being too far away.

YOUNGSTOWN

A meeting was held in the office of Congressman J. G. Cooper last Friday night when plans were made for holding the second annual banquet of the Mahoning Valley McKinley Club. It will be held at the Hotel Ohio as near as possible the birthday of McKinley, Jan. 29. Former Senator Burton and Gov. C. S. Whitman of New York may be among the speakers.

Wm. Wright of Sebring, charged with the murder of James Gallagher at Sebring some months since, was acquitted by the jury in court here late last week Thursday. His brother Walter, charged with the same crime, was arraigned in court Monday and pleaded guilty to manslaughter. Judge Anderson sentenced him to an indeterminate term in the Mansfield reformatory.

Eleven new cases of smallpox were reported in the city the first of this week.

Emery Whitstone, aged 96, died last week. He was probably the oldest resident of the city.

Gasoline has been given another boost in price but that fact does not appear to lessen the number of automobiles here or elsewhere.

All the big iron and steel mills, and little ones, too, for that matter, are running full capacity with orders enough ahead to keep them going steadily for months to come.

Hon. E. H. Moore, member of the democratic national committee, has announced that he favors the nomination of former Gov. Judson Harmon as his first choice for the nomination for governor next year and former Gov. James M. Cox as his second choice.

Thousands of people saw the old Liberty Bell as it passed through the city Tuesday afternoon on its way back to Philadelphia from the San Francisco exposition.

A. J. Avery, motorman on the Y. & S., had a hard time Sunday morning to keep from running over a deer that raced along the track in front of his car a short distance south of North Lima, 10 miles from here. It is understood that quite a number of Colorado deer were turned loose at Steamboat some time since and the animal may have been one of them.

The Republic Iron & Steel Co. has authorized the erection of another blast furnace here which will have a daily capacity of 600 tons. It will cost half a million dollars and require six months to complete.

SALEM

Era Webster, the veteran auctioneer known all over the county, was brought to the city hospital Monday to be treated for an immense abscess on the back of his head, the result of a large carbuncle. Mr. Webster is about 75 years old.

At the meeting of pomona grange last Saturday at Mt. Nebo definite steps were taken to secure a county agricultural agent. The initiative and referendum were declared not a success. It was determined to fight to a finish for a dry Ohio and equal suffrage.

Rev. S. G. Cowell, a retired minister aged 77, died Sunday night in the city hospital of convulsions. He is survived by several children. Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon and burial was made in Hope cemetery.

A new deep well for the city is being drilled on the Brooks farm north of town.

J. Bowman has purchased C. E. Hawk's meat market on East Main street.

According to reports, County Auditor Crooks, who was succeeded by Bert Brooks, must have let the affairs of the office run pretty loose. Congressman John G. Cooper will be given a complimentary banquet at the Hotel Ohio by 100 friends Saturday night on the eve of his departure for Washington to take up his official duties.

LONG REIGN OF PROSPERITY

Can any one see the end of this "wave of prosperity" in the United States, which was emphasized as to the Pittsburgh district yesterday by the local newspapers with figures showing record-breaking payrolls? While domestic orders are being released in great volume, there are still some individuals who attribute the boom to the demand of Europe for war munitions. The inference they would have us draw is that if the war were to end our prosperity would go with it. But the statements of yesterday would indicate that with the ending of the war the demand for materials for reconstruction would for years take the place of orders now being received for war munitions. Here are some things to keep in mind while reading these industrial reports:

The fear of a great commercial struggle against the United States after the war should be modified by the thought that this country was holding its own in the industrial contest with Europe at its best—in the peace before the war. It is certain that after the war Europe will endeavor to come back as vigorously as possible; but if it could not vanquish in the fullness of its strength gathered in years of peace, how is it going to do it suddenly in its crippled condition after the war? After the loss of millions of its best workmen, after the waste of billions of its capital? Years will be required for it to recover its strength, and during those years it will have to depend upon the United States for aid in reconstruction.

At the same time markets formerly supplied by the warring nations and their turning to the United States with their demands will have to continue relying upon us, at least until Europe has recovered. Here is where the United States has a problem. It must find out how to hold any new markets it may capture; it has set about to do this and with every outlook for success.

Under the circumstances who can bring himself to believe that the prosperity now upon us is of a temporary nature?—Pittsburgh Post.

How to Prevent Croup.

It may be a surprise to you to learn that in many cases croup can be prevented. Mrs. H. M. Johns, Elida, O., relates her experience as follows: "My little boy is subject to croup. During the past winter I kept a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the house, and when he began having that croupy cough I would give him one or two doses of it and it would break the attack. I like it better for children than any other cough medicine because children take it willingly, and it is safe and reliable." Sold by all dealers.—Adv.

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS

—Twenty-four marriage licenses were issued in this county on Wednesday.

—Leetonia board of education has placed the schools of the village back to standard time after being petitioned to do so by many of the residents of the village.

—One thing that people who are so free with their criticism of the newspaper should always remember is that no paper could long exist on the amount received from subscriptions, says the Garrettsville Journal.

—The Lisbon Journal says Miss Carrie Nichols left Tuesday morning for Columbus where she will be the guest of Rev. and Mrs. R. E. Pugh until after Christmas when she will go to Kansas City, Mo., where she expects to make her future home.

—Plans are about completed for the erection of a new Presbyterian church in Girard. The ground dimensions of the structure are 43 by 65 feet. The auditorium will be 40 by 42 feet, and back of it will be Sunday school rooms and a kitchen department. The building will be of brick and handsome profile.

—A farmer wrote to the editor of an agricultural paper as follows: "I have a horse that has been afflicted for the past year with periodical fits of dizziness. Please let me know what I should do with him, as he seems to get worse instead of better. I am afraid he will be unfit for work if something is not done soon." In the next issue this answer appeared: "When the nag is looking all right, sell him to someone."

—The Erie railroad has ordered and will soon receive the first shipments of 30 locomotives for heavy freight service. The new engines will afford 28 per cent greater tractive power than have the present heavy engines which mean they can haul about 12 more cars of ore than now handled in one train. The new machines will have five drive wheels and a trailer which the present type of engine has but four drive wheels. Engines of the new type have been used on some divisions of the road and are giving great service.

—It certainly is strange to me; I often wonder why a fellow can get cornered when he drinks nothing else but rye.

—Cincinnati Enquirer.

WILL DEMOBILIZE IF ASSURED OF SAFETY

Greece Asks if She Will Be Protected From the Bulgars and Their Allies.

DOUBT CONTINUATION OF CAMPAIGN

The Situation of the Serbian Army is Little Improved and It is Gradually Being Beaten Down and Surrounded.

Athens, Nov. 24.—King Constantine Monday put this plain proposition to the allies: Assure Greece of safety against the Bulgarians and their Teutonic allies in case you abandon your Balkan expedition and the Greek army will demobilize.

This is virtually a reply to Lord Kitchener's reported declaration to Greek officials that England will, by next March, have 4,000,000 soldiers under arms and be prepared to provision 6,000,000 Russians.

Question of Self-Preservation. It is simply a question of self-preservation with the perplexed Greek monarch. Greece claims that she is still in doubt whether the allies contemplate a serious continuation of the Balkan campaign. If the allies assure her of this, then Greece will remove the troops which now form a menace to the allies' rear at Saloniki.

The best guarantee, says an authority close to the king, is the presence of the allied forces in sufficient number to render Greece's own defense in Macedonia superfluous. Otherwise demobilization would leave Greek Macedonia at the mercy of the victorious Bulgarians with their army already in the field.

It is also learned that King Constantine assured Lord Kitchener that he had never seriously considered disarming or internment allied troops who might take refuge on Greek soil.

The opinion is held here that a solution of the complications in the relations between Greece and the entente powers may now be reached.

An authoritative statement that the coercive measures which the British have begun to employ do not constitute a blockade has greatly relieved the tense situation.

London, Nov. 24.—The Bulgarians, assisted by Gen. Von Gallwitz with one German army corps, are preparing to attack the Anglo-French forces, according to Saloniki advices to the Daily Telegraph.

An Austrian headquarter's report states that Gen. Von Gallwitz is making good progress north of Pristina and already is within 13 miles of the city. His army captured during Sunday and Monday 12,000 Serbians.

Has Turned the Scales. According to the Neue Zurich of Zurich the firm stand taken by the quadruple entente in dealing with King Constantine has turned the scales in Italy and all obstacles to the sending of an expedition to the Balkans have now been removed.

The Journal La Suisse of Chassas states that Italian troops already are being landed in Albania.

Geneva dispatches say that Austria has concentrated 150,000 men at Pola, the Austrian naval base on the Adriatic. These troops could be sent into Montenegro or Albania.

The desperate situation of the Serbian army was little improved Monday. They are resisting desperately at all points but are gradually being beaten down and surrounded.

"Eastward and southward of Pristina the Serbians are tenaciously resisting the Bulgarians," admits the Austrian headquarter's report.

A Serbian official report Monday claims a victory of some little importance in the region west of Nish and Lesovac.
